Introducing Sonnig Travel Insurance

With wealth of experience in ambulance and medical evacuation flights, we are reliable partner to governments, major corporations and individuals throughout the African continent.

Peace of mind while on travel - it's priceless.

Packages

Governments

We partner with governments and provide general medical evacuation for all visitors under the agreed terms and conditions stipulated by local governments.

Corporations

Corporations benefit from exclusive packages for their personnel and rely on us when situation demands rapid medical evacuation and ambulance flights. Other urgency situations can also be covered with corporate package.

Individuals

We serve numerous individuals providing tailored, personalised cover and unique ability to bring you back home by fastest possible means when time really matters.

How does it work?

We partner with governments and provide general medical evacuation for all visitors under the agreed terms and conditions stipulated by local governments.

Persons travelling to West Africa can purchase online, before start of their trip, Conditional Title of Transport for EUR 17.50.- per person, per week (or fraction of the week). Upon the purchase, traveler will receive confirmation which represents the contract for medical evacuation by aircraft in case of life threatening medical condition that has been verified by appointed, competent medical personnel. Conditional Title of Transport is not transferable and is valid only for the transport of person(s) listed on the agreement.

Increasing number of countries in West Africa are considering to implement this form of medical insurance as mandatory prior issuance of the entry visa.
